

Welcome to 2023!

Happy New Year! As the challenges continue, we have learnt over the past few years there seems to be no such thing as a 'normal' year. A global pandemic, natural disasters, supply shortages with associated price increases and now the cost of living pressures. All of which are a major concern for many businesses and households.

This is one of many reasons we would like to communicate our thanks to all our loyal customers that have supported us over the years and to all our new customers that keep our business growing.

Fortunately the LPG pricing has remained stable along with the supply, most talk around the on-going shortages and price increases are for LNG - Natural Gas, not to be confused with bottled gas.

We appreciate your business and look forward to continuing to service your LP Gas needs in the New Year.

15% OFF your next appliance service

Service your heater now to beat the Winter rush. Be rewarded by receiving 15% off the standard rates. Simply mention this advert or bring into store with you, along with your appliance. Valid until 30.6.23, only applicable for one appliance service, one voucher per person.*

How often should my appliance be serviced? It is recommended every two years.

Why should it be serviced if it's in good working order? It will prolong the life of the appliance, Ensures safe & efficient working order, It has many health benefits as it will make for cleaner air and gas tends to build up and makes the appliance smelly.

What charges will I need to pay? If you can unplug your appliance and bring it to our workshop we charge $80 per hour, if you would prefer we came to you to make it hassle free we charge $90 per hour. Generally most servicing can be done in an hour.
(spare parts or travel charges may apply)

Thinking of upgrading instead of servicing? No problems, we are happy to take the equivalent value off the new appliance price. Is your old heater in working order? We can even offer a trade in it. Simply drop your heater in for assessment and we can provide a price to purchase from you directly.
